OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL

Our vision

Opportunity for all children and youth

All children have clear and accessible pathways to well-being, educational attainment, civic engagement, and upward mobility

Schooling – Education – Equity

- Horace Mann: “Education as the Great Balance Wheel”
- School Reform/School Optimization
- Education with Capital E: Bolder-Broader

Race, place, and income should no longer be determinants of school and life outcomes for children and youth

Declining intergenerational mobility

Rates of absolute mobility have declined sharply. 90% of children born in the 1940s earned more than their parents; this was true for only 50% of children born in the 1980s.<sup>1</sup>

Inequitable opportunity

Children's outcomes in adulthood are determined more by their socioeconomic status, zip code, and race than by the quality of their schools. Students from the lowest income families may be up to six grade levels behind their peers from the highest income families.<sup>2</sup>

1. Chetty et al. (2017); chart from Opportunity Insights
2. Reardon (2016)

Ed Reform: Necessary but Insufficient

Schools alone, as currently constituted, cannot do the job of all means all.

Ed reform set out to achieve all means all. But there is still an iron law correlation between socioeconomic status and educational achievement and attainment.

We are building a movement to transform the systems that are currently failing to provide equitable access to supports, resources, and opportunities to all children and youth...

There are gaps in today's child development and education systems

School-centric

80% of a child's waking hours are spent outside of school, so efforts exclusively focused on schools are insufficient

Fragmented

Supports and resources for children and families are fragmented, hard to access, and not available to all

Factory model

School systems often fail to meet student needs by operating a “one size fits all” model

...Into a cradle-to-career ecosystem that integrates and aligns efforts across sectors to provide every child with an equitable opportunity to thrive

From

To

Schoolcentric

Cross-sector and comprehensive

Holistic child and youth development and education

Fragmented

Coordinated and collaborative

Cradle-to-career collaborative action that supports equitable, efficient, and effective systems of supports, resources, and opportunities so that no child or family falls through the cracks

Factory model

Personalized and responsive

Individualized to meet each child where they are and provide them with personalized supports, enrichments, and other resources that align with their own needs and strengths

Housed at a world-class research university, we are well-positioned to serve as a field catalyst and trusted thought partner across our key areas

Talent and leadership development

Developing community leaders and teams who can manage complex, cross-sector initiatives that yield positive outcomes for children and youth at scale

Actionable research

Meeting the demand for case studies, toolkits, and other resources driven by the growing momentum in our field and expanding the evidence base for collaborative action and personalized supports

Movement Building/Systems Change

Convening to enable peer learning, showcasing promising practices, thought partnership and the exploration of "big ideas", and accelerating impact through policy and systems change

"While equitable systems change requires a diverse set of actors playing distinct and complementary roles across a field or ecosystem, field catalysts harmonize and drive that multifaceted work, serving as a kind of nerve center for the matrix of activity needed to transform our inequitably designed systems." The Bridgespan Group

My Why:

What brings me to this work.

Communities across the nation are coming together around a collective vision of school and life success for all children and moving the needle on persistent issues such as:

- Chronic absenteeism
- Increased mental and physical health needs
- Disparate academic outcomes
- Inequitable economic and social mobility
- Increased demand for basic needs service...

ALL MEANS ALL!

Where We Are Now

- Flourishing communities of practice
- Emerging Proof Points
- Expanding knowledge of variation and best practices
- New Tools and Road maps
- Growing movement, garnering support, increasing visibility, building demand
- Some COVID funds available
- Urgent needs in the field

Success Planning as a Unifying Strategy

- Success Planning serves as an entry point
- Aligns with broader place-based strategies
- Informs policy and systems change
- Bridges divides and unifies communities across boundaries and ideologies to meet children where they are and give them what they need.

"It is easier to build strong children
than to repair broken
adults."

- Sticky notes: Use sticky notes to write and share reactions of any kind next to the respective data point
- Sticker dots: Use different colored dots to do the following
  - Yellow dots: What statistic, if any, surprised you?
  - Green dots: Which statistics are particularly important to your community (e.g., your initiative targets these stats, you know it's a community need in general, etc.)
  - Red dots: Which statistics resonate with you personally (e.g., they impacted your childhood, you know/knew someone affected, you have professional expertise in the area, etc.)

Data Walk: Small Group Discussions (5 min.)

Reflect on your sticky notes and dots:

- What surprised you?
- What emotions are evoked?
- How does this make you think about your work locally?

Full Group Discussion (15 min.)

Creating a strength-based approach to data collection and service delivery

As is unfortunately common, these statistics are presented from a deficit-based perspective, how could your community collect and present data from a more strength-based approach?

Relevance to your community's Success Planning efforts

Which data categories feel like something you anticipate impacting in the short and/or long term?

Which of these data points had you not yet considered in your current work?

What data is missing from this list that is relevant to your Success Planning work/impact?

Team Visualization

Creating a Shared Vision

Build on the “Why Success Planning” and data walk sessions for the following discussion:

- Discuss in your teams what needs Success Planning will address in your community.
- When Success Planning is fully implemented in your community, what will this look like? How will it be different than what happens now?
- Note areas where there are different visions that will need to be revisited later.
- Consider how equity, families, and youth voice will be incorporated into this vision.

Creating a Shared Vision

What needs will Success Planning address?

What will Success Planning look like when implemented?

What areas need to be revisited later to reach consensus?

How will equity be built in? Consider the needs of children and youth with learning differences, migrant students and English learners.

Creating a Shared Vision

Overall goal statement

(include what you want to achieve BOTH in experiences and outcomes)

Primary Drivers
What are the main elements that need to be in place?

Secondary Drivers
(Details)
What would it take to make that happen?

Action Ideas
What specific actions can we take to advance this work? Who will do this and by when?

My Why

Virtual Turn & Talk

Think back to when you were a child/youth.

Share about a trusted relationship you had with a caring adult:

- Who was your caring adult?
- What made you feel known, seen, and heard by them?

Research shows...

Trusting relationships between adults and children are essential for child development and learning (Osher et al., 2018)

Providing increased supports to children is linked with better academic and other outcomes (Johnston et al., 2020)

Why Success Planning?

Success Planning is a Practical Approach for School and Community Leaders

- Provides 360-degree view of each child's strengths, interests, goals, and challenges
- Fosters meaningful relationships between each student and a caring adult navigator who can serve as a connector to supports and opportunities
- Ensures that these relationships and supports aren't just luck of the draw

The Navigator's Impact in Success Planning

The Navigator's Role

Success Planning: Caring Adult/Navigator Role

- Caring adults ensure each child or youth is seen, known, understood, supported, and provided with customized opportunities to learn and thrive.
- In partnership with families and others in the community, caring adults recognize the unique strengths and needs of each child or youth through a whole-child approach.
- They coordinate the implementation of an individualized action plan, which is co-created by centering the voice and agency of the children and youth they support.

Success Planning: Child's/Youth's Role

- Children and youth are provided the opportunity to discover their passions and communicate their interests and needs.
- Their hopes and dreams are defined by them and supported by the caring adults within their ecosystem, including their Navigators.

Success Planning: Family's/Caregiver's Role

Families and caregivers are partners in the Success Planning process.

- They understand and know their children deeply.
- They can provide wisdom, support, expertise, and valuable information that contribute to the success of their children and youth in both school and life.

Caring Adult Essentials

- Dedicated 1:1 relationship between child/youth and caring adult (advisory)
- Meet on a regular basis
- Caring adults trained to holistically support child(ren)/youth

Design Questions: Navigators

- Who serves as Navigator?
- What does the Navigator do?
- What training do Navigators need?
- What are the time and workload considerations?

Who Can Serve As Navigators?

Teachers

Administrators

School Support Staff

Place-based Site Coordinators

Coaches

Community-Based Organization Staff

Community members

Out-of-School Time Program Staff

Other Caring Adults

Brainstorm other individuals in the broader ecosystem (cross-sector) who can potentially serve as navigators.

Think outside the traditional box!

Pause for Reflection: Leveraging the Community Ecosystem

What Does A Navigator Do?

What Are the Time and Workload Considerations?

- Time and workload varies depending on the design of your Success Planning initiative. (e.g., staffing, design choices).
- Navigators should have consistent points of connection with youth (weekly, biweekly) for a period of time that is appropriate to build a positive trusting relationship and review the youth's plan of action.
- Many initiatives implement Success Planning within existing structures like advisories, out-of-school time groups, flex periods, etc.

Guiding Questions

- What do Navigators need to know?
- Who do Navigators need to be?
- What do Navigators need to do?

Essential Navigator Skills

- Cultural humility
- Empathy
- Understanding
- Compassion
- Grace
- Good communication
- Organization
- Systems thinking
- Knowledge of the broader ecosystem (system of supports)
- Social and political capital
- Good judgment (escalation/referrals)
- Ability to foster positive trusting relationships
- Spirit of collaboration
- Coordination (other professionals & partners)
- Partnership development

Share how considering these Navigator skills can impact your Navigator design, job descriptions, and/or hiring processes.

Pause for Reflection:
Skills and Dispositions of the Caring Adults (Navigators)

Support for Navigators

Lower barriers and reduce anxiety: scripts, training, etc.

Empower Navigators
What should a Navigator do when they don't know what to do?

Provide support at all levels: Navigators, support team, leadership

Create community and opportunities to share

Consider balance between training and tools. Layer in supports and training based on need and readiness.

Supporting Navigators to Exercise Good Judgment

- Navigators are a part of a broader team. They should leverage others, through referrals, when a situation arises that requires the skill set of other professional staff (social workers, school psychologists, healthcare workers, security guards, etc.) and goes beyond their navigation role.
- Success Plans should not replace Individual Education Plans (IEPs) or other systems/plans (504 plans, other special education plans) put in place to support children or youth with identified needs. Success Plans should align, cohere, and support existing IEPs and other existing plans.
- Navigators should also be aware of when they should partner with families to address issues that may arise.
- Clear policies, protocols, and documentation processes should be in place to ensure Navigators are aware of how they should proceed with warm hand-offs (referrals).

Discuss what capacity building/professional development you have or will have in place to support and connect Navigators?

Pause for Reflection: Navigator Support

Create Warm, Welcoming, and Safe Spaces (Physical and Psychological)

- Be innovative and creative as you center the relational aspects of your Success Planning implementation. Consider human-centered design, which is a methodology that centers the user at the heart of the design process.
- Amplify the voices and input of young people. Provide an opportunity for them to co-create physical spaces that feel warm, welcoming (seating, décor, posters, fidgets, snacks, etc.), and promote psychological safety.
- Ensure young people can talk about their goals and issues with an appropriate level of privacy.
- Be consistent!

Spotlight of Nashville, Tennessee

Lessons in Leadership and Building Scaling and Sustaining an Effective Student Success Initiative

- Metro Nashville Public Schools created a Navigator program in which teachers and other school staff meet regularly with students
- They check in to support, identify needs, and build on strengths
- Currently over 50,000 students are being served by the initiative
- Approximately 6,000 Navigators come from a wide range of backgrounds
- There is particular focus on supporting social-emotional wellbeing and ensuring every student is known
- There will be an increased academic focus (literacy & numeracy)

- Timely Referrals/Intakes
- Data Entry & Analysis
- Community Engagement & Recruitment
- Informed Decision-Making
- Advocacy & Systems-Change
- Cross-Sector Engagement
- Sustainable Funding Options
- Scale what Works

Plan of Action Essentials

Implement a formal way to:

- Identify and capture youth's strengths and needs
- Document the supports and opportunities that students are being referred to and are receiving
- Input plan of action information into a database that can be aggregated for data-driven decision making

Design Questions: Plan of Action

- Who is responsible for developing and updating the plan?
- What does the actual plan look like?
- How will youth (and family) voices be included?

A Focus on Personalization: Plans for Action

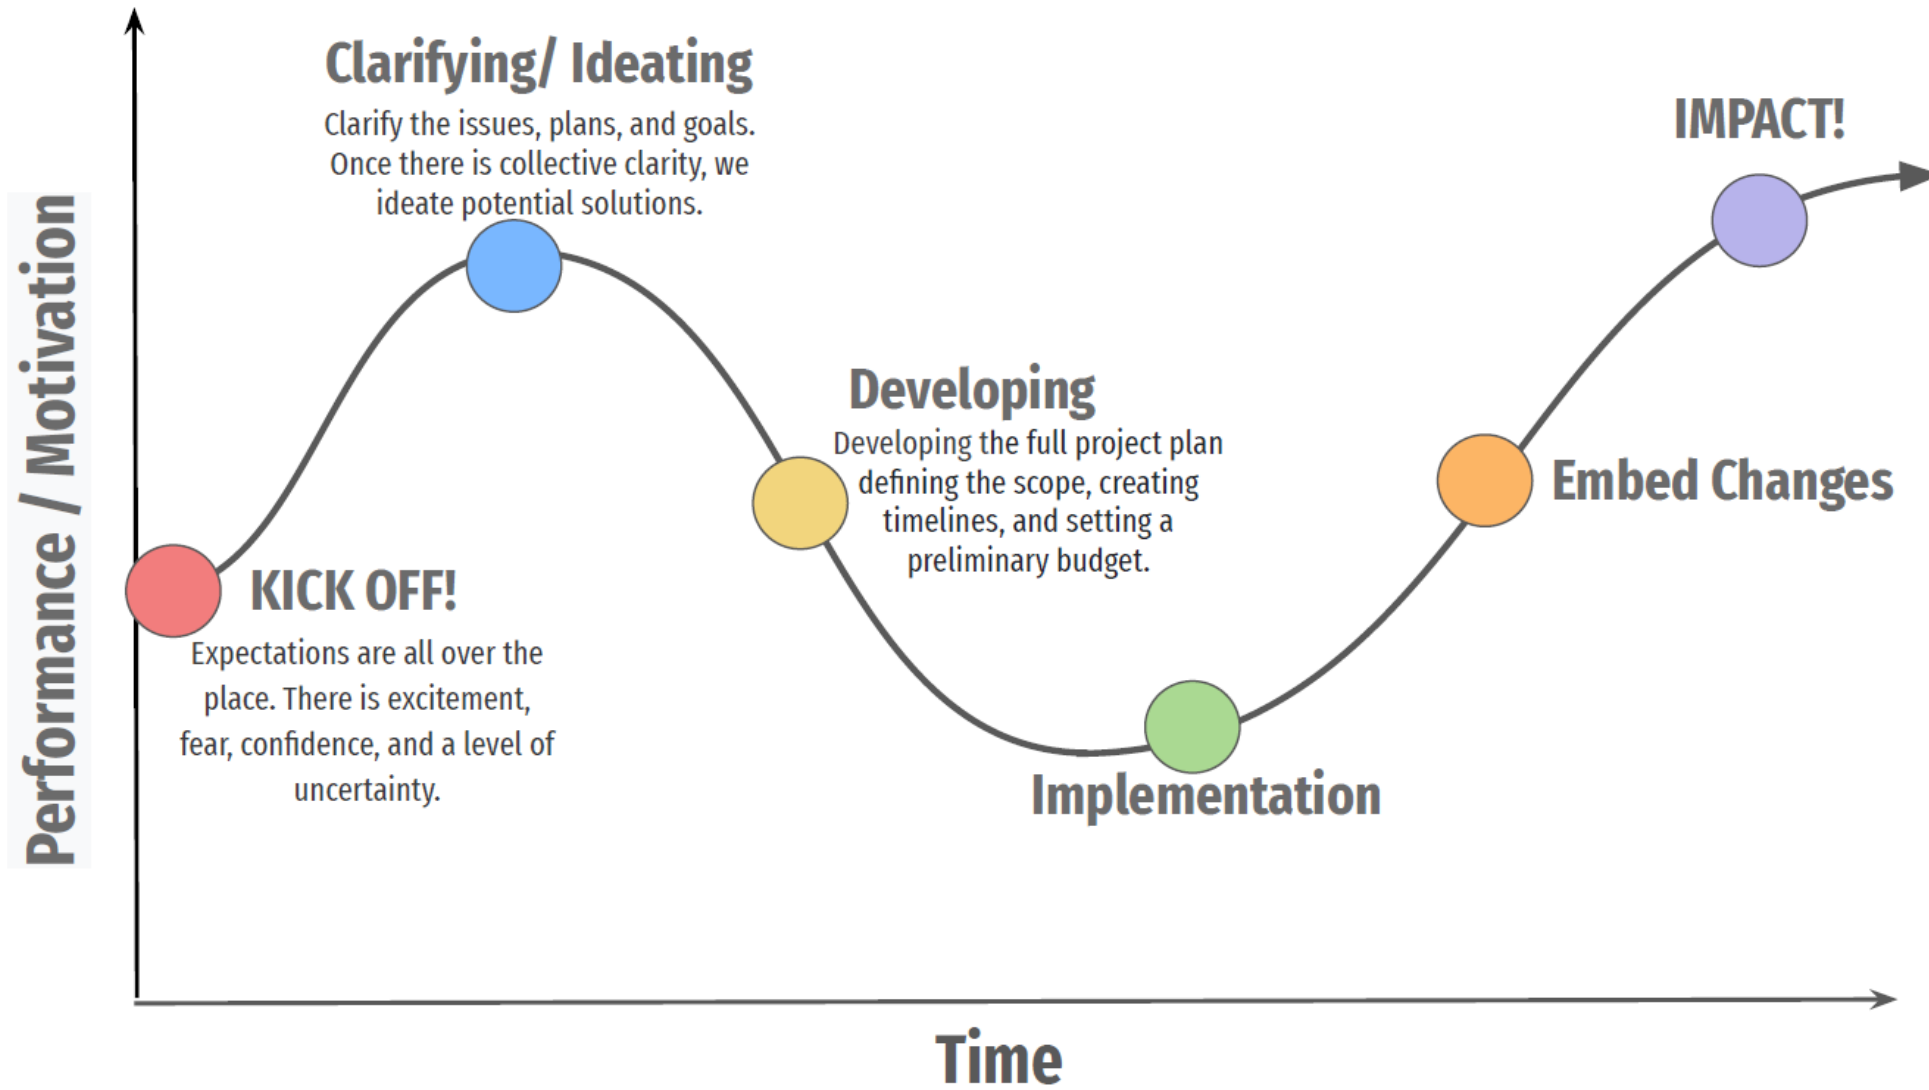

- Success Planning is a whole-child, relationship-based approach that focuses on the individualized needs and strengths of children and youth. Navigators co-create and update the plans with youth, their families, and other caring adults.
- Individualized Success Plans can act as dynamic tools to guide individual support, but they can also have broader, systemic impact.
- Success Plans can be levers for changing today's "factory-like system of schooling" — where complex individual needs often go unserved — "into a targeted, customized system that has the capacity to realize our urgent goal of preparing all of our children for success." – Paul Reville

The Importance of an Iterative Process

- Lead with a disposition to learn
- Unexpected challenges can be instructive
- Feedback loops can enable you to course correct or pivot in real time
- Commit to quality implementation
- Peer-to-peer learning communities provide leaders with a system of support
- Sharing promising practices across different contexts can lead to innovation

Success Planning Component: System of Supports

System of Supports Essentials

- Partnerships across health (physical and mental), academics, social services, extracurricular, and community organizations
- Cross-sector coordination and collaboration
- Coherence and alignment with other efforts
- Access and opportunity
- Resource development
- Supports are aligned with the needs of youth (data-driven)

Design Questions: System of Supports

- What supports will be included?
- How will Navigators have knowledge of and access to supports?
- How will the community ensure equitable access to supports?
- How will the community ensure a coordinated system?
- What is the cost and source of funding?

Partnership Development: Tips for Real-Time Implementation

Focus on tactical, technical, and adaptive aspects simultaneously

Create and commit to a shared definition of partnership

Build, cultivate, and sustain a cross-sector system of supports

Consider a tiered approach to effective and strategic partnership development

Cultivate authentic and trusting relationships across sectors

Foster innovation

Assess readiness and support growth

Commit to quality assurance and continuous improvement

“The true measure of any society can be found in how it treats its most vulnerable members”

- Mahatma Gandhi

Equitable Access & Opportunity

Race, place, and income should no longer be determinants of school and life success for children and youth.

What opportunities exist for the next generation of children and youth to earn more or have better outcomes than their parents as adults?

We advance two critical strategies that engage both systems and individual children and youth

OUR MISSION

To ensure the social, emotional, physical, and academic development and well-being of all children and youth, especially those affected by racism and poverty

Amplifying the impact of local governmental and non-governmental systems and programs serving children, youth, and families through place-based, cross sector collaboration to remove structural barriers and open pathways to opportunity

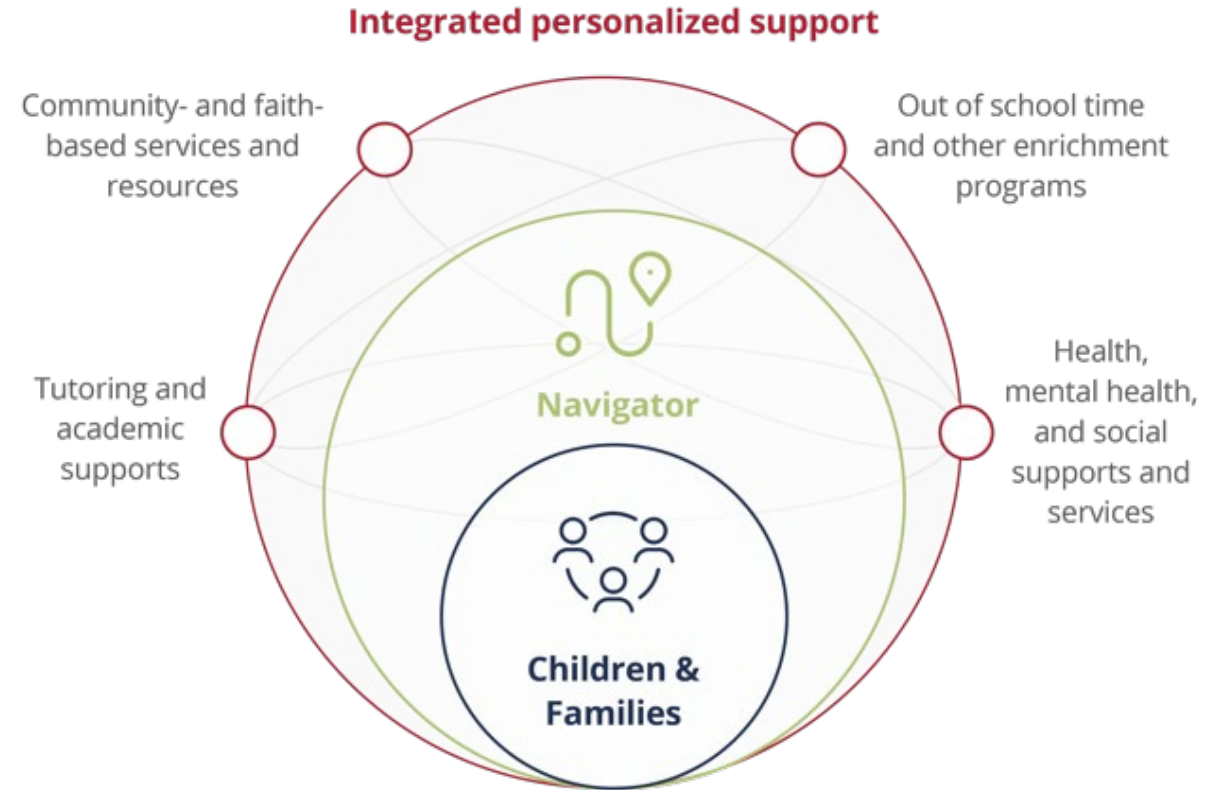

Meeting the needs of each individual child and youth through personalized, relationship-based opportunities and supports for them to reach their full potential

Personalized, Relationship-based Supports

Supports and opportunities need to be personalized to meet the needs of each individual child and youth. Our approach is called Success Planning, a relationship-based, whole-child approach that connects each child or youth to an adult Navigator.

Each child's or youth's Navigator co-creates a personalized plan for action in partnership with their families and other caring adults, ensuring that every child is known, seen, and heard, has a positive connection to a caring adult, and has agency over their roadmap to success.

Insufficient Time

- Schools consume only 20% of a child's waking hours between kindergarten and high school graduation.
- 80% of their waking hours is spent among family and in their community.

The Ecosystem

Cradle to Career Supports and Opportunities

A One-Size Fits All Approach Has Not Worked

We must meet children,
youth, and families
where they are and
customize our supports.

A New Vision

A new system of education and child development must support each child's needs inside and outside of school in a personalized manner throughout their school years and all the way to employment.

“Meet them where they are.”

“Give them what they need.”

Personalization

- Meet ALL children and youth where they are and give them what they need to be successful, in school and life.
- Every child and youth should be known, seen, and heard.
- A movement toward a system that diagnoses children's needs and strengths, then supplies customized opportunities and supports.

Access and Opportunity Should Not Require a Golden Ticket

How Do We Measure Success?

Whole-child approach:

- Academic
- Student Well-Being
- Sense of Belonging
- Access and Opportunity
- Participation

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Turn & Talk

Think back to when you were a young person.

- What did you want to be when you "grew up"?
- When and how did you decide that?
- Is there a difference between what you imagined then and where you are now?

My Journey

Fostering Pathways to Success

Communities across the country are seeking innovative strategies to respond in real time to mitigate negative education, social, and economic impacts on children and youth like:

- Drastic increases in chronic absenteeism
- Increased need for mental health services for children and families
- Deep disparities in academic outcomes, which are tied to race, place, and income
- Health and economic disparities
- Increased demand for basic needs services...

Household Income
for Black Children of Low Income Parents

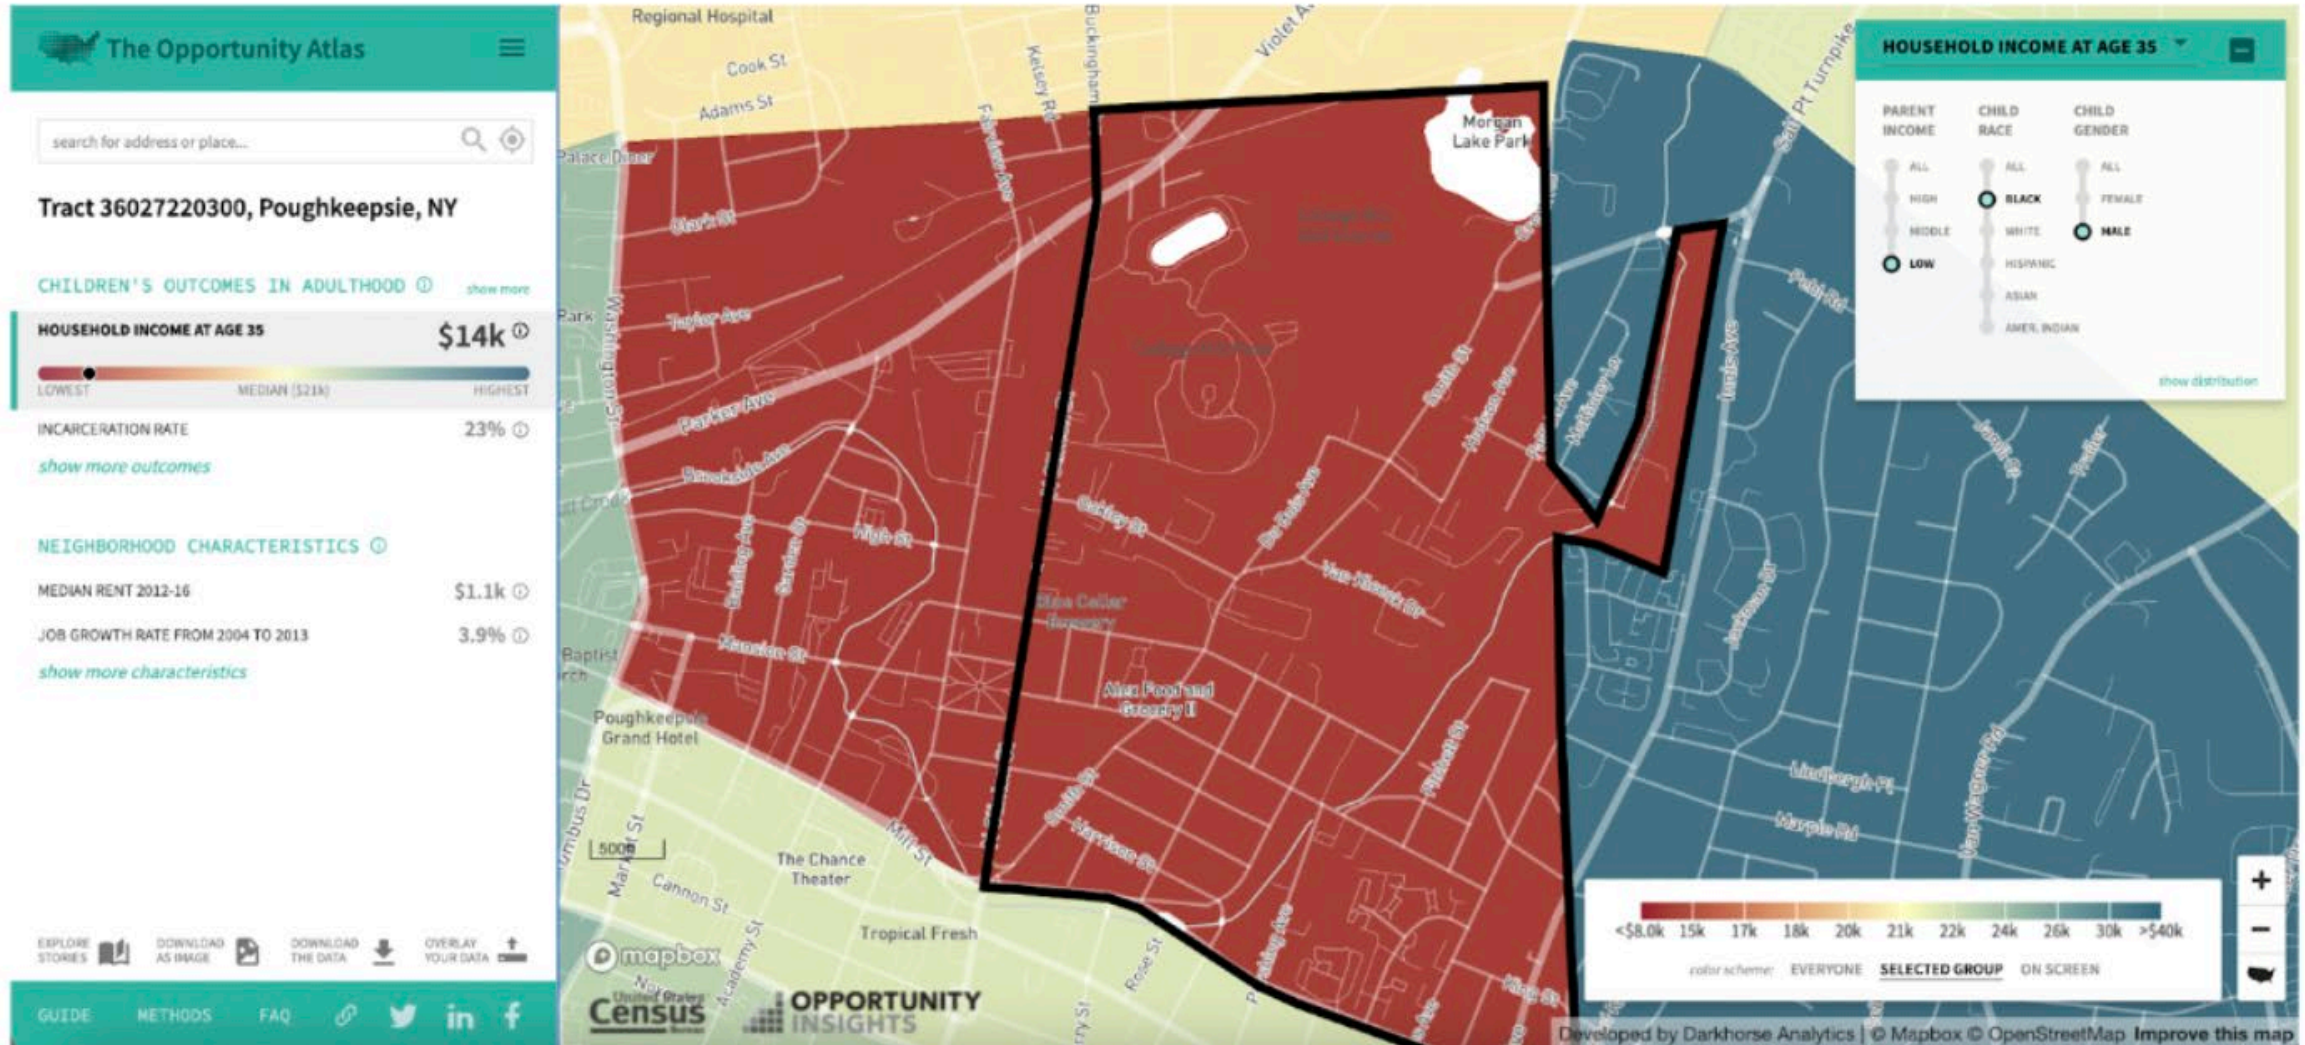

Source: Aspen Institute, "How do Rich Neighborhoods Exist So Close to Poor Ones," June 26, 2019

This is an Intergenerational Problem

Low-income black males that grew up in the City of Poughkeepsie's poorest neighborhoods—which are located on its northside—had a median household income of $14,000 as an adult. This is on par with the worst neighborhoods in the entire US for intergenerational mobility for low-income black males.

Place-based Cross-sector Collaboration

- Communities need to work together, across sectors, to create coordinated systems of support and opportunity for children and youth through Children's Cabinets and other models for cross-sector collaboration, including community backbone organizations and place-based partnerships.
- Cradle-to-career place-based partnerships among governmental agencies, school systems, health care systems and providers, community- and faith-based organizations, philanthropies, and for-profit and not-for-profit businesses drive transformational, systems-level change.

Place-Based Partnership Networks – Different Units of Change

Through
collaborative action,
a community can leverage its resources to ensure
every child has the opportunity to

Collaborative Action

- Centers children and youth through a shared vision
- Engages key decision makers and community leaders
- Maximizes impact and progress
- Ensures more efficient and effective use of community resources
- Encourages data-driven decision making and continuous improvement
- Promotes strategic planning (short-term & long-term)
- Ensures more shared and inclusive practices and processes toward sustainable solutions

Spotlight on Poughkeepsie, NY

A By All Means & Success Planning Community

- In 2020, Rob Watson partnered with the mayor, superintendent of schools, and community stakeholders to launch the Poughkeepsie Children's Cabinet (PCC), a StriveTogether Network Member.
- The PCC's Board of Directors includes the Mayor, Superintendent of Schools, County Executive and CEO of the Dyson Foundation, the Mid-Hudson Valley of NY's largest regional philanthropy.
- During the COVID-19 pandemic, the PCC facilitated a partnership between Dutchess County Government and Poughkeepsie City School District to do a Success Planning pilot through the Boston College City Connects program in Poughkeepsie Middle School.
- Poughkeepsie recently received a $2.5M Full-Service Community Schools (FSCS) grant from the US Department of Education to scale its Community Schools offerings to all 5 elementary schools.
- Success Planning will be a cross-cutting FSCS strategy to inform the PCC's emerging policy agenda citywide and at the neighborhood level.

HOW NAZ WORKS ON AN INDIVIDUAL LEVEL

Maximizing Impact: Aligning Personalization and Collaborative Action Efforts

- Collaborative leadership structures, like Children's Cabinets or place-based partnerships, play a key coordination role to ensure strategic direction and the alignment of cross-sector efforts and resources within communities.
- They can help to fuel Success Planning efforts, as a vehicle to provide more personalized and relationship-based supports to meet the needs of all children and youth
- Success Planning provides critical data for decision makers and a roadmap for all cross-sector partners to clearly identify their roles and pathway to collectively realize the community-wide shared vision for all.

Centering the Broader “Why” of Success Planning

Success Planning Implementation

What We Are Learning

There are positive implications for:

- Reductions in chronic absenteeism
- Effective partnerships with families
- Meeting the needs of children and youth from often underserved populations
- Youth voice and agency
- Alignment with district strategic priorities, MTSS, IEPs, 504 Plans

Connecting Personalization and Collaborative Action for Policy and Systems Change

Personalization and Collaborative Action

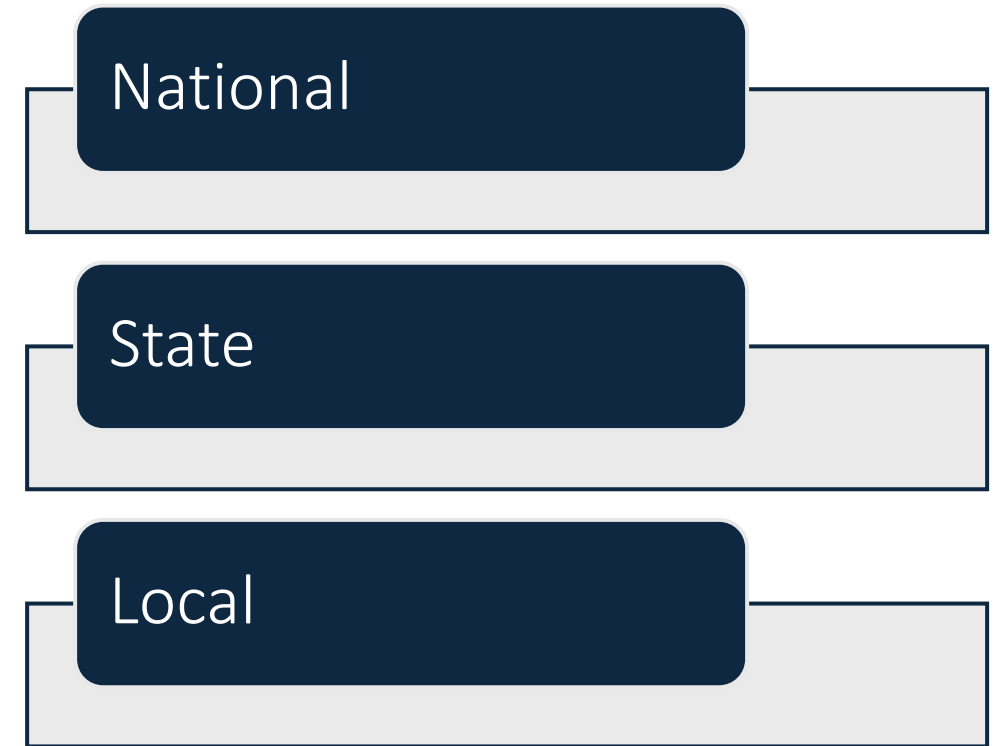

Serve as vehicles for:

- More equitable access and opportunity
- Greater social and economic mobility
- More efficient and effective use of community-wide resources, informed by data
- Better alignment and coordination for strategic decision making and service delivery
- Amplifying/maximizing impact within broader place-based strategies
- Policy and systems change (at all levels)

Systems Change

- The ecosystems that impact our children and youth are vast and interconnected.
- Meaningful progress towards systemic change requires leaders at all levels, and across all sectors, to integrate and align their implementation, policy and advocacy efforts, and resources to ensure more equitable access and opportunity for ALL.

Sustainable Systems Change
